IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Phillip A. Talbert, United States Attorney, through Assistant United States Attorney Roger Yang, attorney for Plaintiff and Federal Defender Heather E. Williams through Assistant Federal Defender Megan Hopkins, attorney for Raymond James Cornett, that Mr. Cornett be transported by the United States Marshal to the United States Marshal Service Office in order to facilitate a video call with Mr. Cornett's ailing father, Ellis Raymond Cornett, who suffers from heart failure and is in terminal condition.

Defense counsel was notified that Mr. Cornett's father was hospitalized for heart failure on Wednesday, November 2, 2022, which has been deemed terminal. Mr. Cornett's father was transferred to hospice care as of today at Saint Elizabeth Hospice in Edgewood, Kentucky, and the time remaining to communicate with him may be fleeting. Defense counsel contacted the United States Marshal Service Supervisory Deputy, who confirmed that a court order for the Marshals to bring Mr. Cornett to the courthouse for a video conference with his father would be sufficient for their purposes, and that once at the United States Marshals Service Office, Mr. Cornett will be transported to the grand jury room where a Federal Defender Staff member would facilitate the call, and remain with him during a video call with his father.

Accordingly, the parties are requesting emergency relief in the form of an order authorizing the United States Marshal to bring Mr. Cornett to USMS to facilitate a video call with his father on Monday, November 7, 2022. Mr. Cornett will need to be at USMS and available for the call at 11:30 a.m. PST, 2:30 p.m. EST. A federal defendant staff member will then coordinate with Mr. Cornett's sister, Stephanie Lynn Cornett to facilitate a video call with his father from the grand jury room, or another location as determined by the USMS. Mr. Cornett will be transported back to Sacramento County Jail by USMS following the video call.

The Government and US Marshal have approved of the transport pending a court order.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, the Court, having received, read, and considered the parties' stipulation, and good cause appearing therefore, adopts the parties' stipulation in its entirety as its order. Mr. Cornett is to be transported to the United States Marshal Service Office on Monday, November 7, 2022, in order to permit a video call with his father from the grand jury room or other appropriate location within the courthouse, as determined by the United States Marshal Service, at 11:30 a.m. PST. Mr. Cornett is to be returned to custody at the Sacramento County Jail following the conclusion of the video call.
